

WENT TO WASHINGTON.

MR. J. F. STATION AND MISS S. R. FRANKLIN TO BE MARRIED.

Two New Railroad Engines—There Were Fifteen Conversions at the West-End Methodist Church—Personals.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HILL STREET, BRENTWOOD BLOCK.

Marriages in the capital of the Union seem to be all the go of late. Another Manchester couple, Mr. J. F. Station and Miss Ida B. Franklin, daughter of Mr. James Franklin, left yesterday morning for Washington, where they will be united in marriage. After a short stay in the capital they will visit Baltimore and other northern cities, after which they will return to this city. The happy couple carry with them the best wishes of their numerous friends, who wish for them a safe return and a long and happy life.

Many people of this city visited the Richmond & Danville railroad shops Wednesday and viewed with admiration the new engine just built for the road by the Richmond Locomotive Works.

There were fifteen conversions at the recent meeting at West-End Methodist church Wednesday night. This makes upward of a hundred and fifty conversions since the beginning of the meetings.

The meetings have been in progress about three weeks and are still increasing in interest. Every night the church is crowded and many are unable to find seats.

The Mayor's sanction was given of town green yesterday morning.

Mrs. F. R. Bacon, of Newark, N. J., is in the city visiting her mother, on Decatur street. She came to attend the marriage of her brother, Mr. N. B. Bacon.

Mr. J. M. G. Fitzpatrick, of Chester, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Nannie T. Lithgow has returned from a very pleasant visit to Mrs. George H. Morris, of Fallsburg.

Rev. Dr. William E. Hatchell will deliver a lecture at Clifton-Street Baptist church next Monday night. His subject will be on "Gideon's Band." Those who have been fortunate enough to hear this lecture speak in high terms of it. An effort will be made to secure some good musical talent on this occasion, which will add a great deal to the entertainment. No admission will be charged.

Miss Annie Parker is visiting relatives in Lynchburg.

Clerk Davis issued a marriage license yesterday. George Jefferson and Alice Jefferson (colored). This is a case where the bride does not change her name.

Rev. Hartley Carmichael, of St. Paul's church, Richmond, will preach at Meade-Memorial church to-night at 8 o'clock.

There will, no doubt, be a large congregation to hear this able divine.

The Hustings Court will convene next Monday.

From now until April 3d the numerous candidates will get in some hard work.

Repairing the old tavern building has begun.

The Henry Literary and Debating Club held its regular meeting last night at the pastor's study of Cowardin-Avenue church. A full attendance was present.

The condition of Mr. E. A. Savory, who has been confined to his home for some time, is unchanged.

The Little Strivers of the Meade-Memorial church will have a sugar stew Easter Monday in the church-yard from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Justice John's Court.

Wrapt in judicial silence the "Big Three" showered justice right and left with an impartial hand yesterday morning. The two lawless transgressors as happens to appear before him, cool breeze caused his Honor to lecture on neurotics, the Sergeant to indefinitely postpone his trip to Virginia Beach, while Clerk White murmured something about the "deadly sin of pride" as the roses come again." The docket was quickly disposed of by the Mogul, who was in a great hurry to return to his fire-side.

Hattie Harper, Anna C. Bell, Joe Bland, Nannie Bay, and Grace Tyler, "colored girls" with pugnacious tempers, each handed over $2.00 of their surplus "dues" for engaging in a general scrapping match, and adjourned the lands of F. A. Williams.

S. ULLMANN'S SON, 1820-1822 east Main street.

The fruit store No. 224 east Main street, opposite the Henrico Court-house, was the scene of a pugilistic affair yesterday, in which several white women, a negro, and white man participated. There was hair-pulling and thumbing, and a stone thrown by the negro, which broke a window glass. Constable Samuels was sent for, but had no authority to act in the city could do nothing more than separate the belligerents.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Three days is a very short time in which to be in bad case of rheumatism, but it can be done. Proper treatment is adopted, as will be shown by following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day, and would insist on every one who uses Chamberlain's Pain Balm and is well advised to buy it. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Owens & Mowbray Co., P. M. Slaughter, Ex. P. Reeves & Co., and H. G. Forstmann, druggists.

COMMISSIONERS' AUCTION SALE OF HOUSE AND LOT ON LESTER STREET.

Kline's Ex'tor against Jenkins and als., Jenkins and wife against Kline's Ex'tor.

In the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, decree of March 3, 1894.

OFFICES FOR RENT IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDING.

One large office, 20x35 feet, with smaller office, 14x19 feet, and vault, $100 per month, plus 6 per cent annual cash interest, plus semi-annual taxes, plus an entrance fee, and every month thereafter sixty cents per share. To illustrate: Taking ten shares the subscriber would pay an entrance fee of $9, and then every month $1.80, plus interest, plus taxes, plus a semi-annual tax of $1.80. During seven years the subscriber would pay in $30, and it is estimated that at the end of that period his ten shares will be worth in cash $4,000, payable on demand.

TO INVESTORS.

All persons contemplating investments for the year 1894 are invited to consider the desirability of the stock of the OLD DOMINION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, which is sold under the following regulations: Subscribers pay a premium of 10 per cent on the amount invested, plus an entrance fee, and every month thereafter sixty cents per share.

This stock presents the rare combination of handsome returns, with security as absolute as any known investment.

Call or write.

CARLTON McCARTHY, Secretary and Treasurer, 53 Main street, Chamber of Commerce Building, Richmond, Va.

Also Cigar and News Stand in main hall of building, fronting Main street, for which proposals will be received till Saturday at 12 M. Privileges reserved of declining any and all bids.
